Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. The rules of construction and definitions and instructions in Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26-37, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7026-7037, are hereby incorporated by reference. All defined terms, including those defined in Local Rule 26.3 are capitalized herein.

2. "You" or "Your" means Reed Abend and any and all entities which you own or control.

3. "BLMIS" means Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC and Bernard L. Madoff and all related entities, including all representatives, agents, employees, attorneys and/or persons acting or purporting to act on their behalf.

4. "Defendants" shall mean all Defendants listed on Schedule A hereto and all affiliates, representatives, agents, employees, attorneys and/or persons acting or purporting to act on such Defendants' behalf.

5. "Communications" shall be given its broadest possible meaning, and includes, without limitation, Documents containing or constituting the transmission or receipt of information by or between or among one or more persons or entities, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes all Documents constituting inquiries, discussions, conversations, letters, correspondence, e-mails, notes, faxes, written memoranda, and phone messages.

6. "Document" is used in its broadest sense and means any attempts to record or transmit information or knowledge and includes the original and all drafts of a writing, which includes, without limitation, all written, recorded, digital, graphic or photographic matter, including electronically stored information (“ESI”), however produced, reproduced or stored, of every kind and description including any agenda, supplements, amendments, revisions, exhibits or appendices thereto, and includes, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, originals (or copies where originals are not available) and drafts of the following: all papers, emails, letters, notes, memoranda, pamphlets, correspondence, telegrams, cables, photographs, microfilm, prints, recordings, transcriptions, blueprints, drawings, books, accounts, objects, notes, electronic or magnetic recordings or sound recordings of any type of personal or telephone conversations or meetings or conferences, minutes of directors or committee meetings, other minutes, reports, studies, written forecasts, projects, analyses, contracts, licenses, agreements, ledgers, journals, books of account, vouchers, bank checks, invoices, charge slips, expense account reports, hotel charges, receipts, freight bills, working papers, drafts, statistical records, cost sheets, abstracts of bids, stenographers' notebooks, calendars, appointment books, telephone slips, wire transfer slips and logs, diaries, time sheets or logs, job or transaction files, computer printouts or papers similar to any of the foregoing, however denominated by you.

7. In producing documents, indicate the paragraph and subparagraph (where applicable) of the Document Request(s) to which a produced document is responsive.

8. To the extent not clarified above, these Requests specifically include documents in electronic form, including emails and other Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) which may or may not be reduced to hard copy in the normal course of business and which may be stored or archived on file servers, hard drives, hard or floppy disks or diskettes, backup tapes, or other storage media. ESI should be produced in an intelligible format or together with a sufficient description of the system or program from which each was derived to permit rendering the material intelligible.

9. “Related to” and “relating to” or any variation thereof shall be construed to include refer to, summarize, reflect, constitute, contain, embody, mention, show, comprise, evidence, discuss, describe, comment upon, concerning, regarding, alluding to, pertaining to, probative of, in connection with, dealing with, in respect of, about, involving, identifying, or proving.

10. “And” and “or” shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively, whichever makes this request more inclusive.

11. The singular number and masculine gender used within this document embraces and shall be read and applied as the plural or the feminine or neuter as circumstances make it appropriate.

12. Unless otherwise defined herein, all words are to be construed in their ordinary or common meaning.

13. In the event You object to the production of any document responsive to this request, as privileged or confidential, please state:

- a. the name of each author, writer, sender or initiator of the document, if any;
- b. the name of each recipient, addressee, or party for whom the document was intended or received, if any;
- c. the date of the document, if any, or an estimate thereof and so indicated as an estimate if no date appears on the document;
- d. a description of the general nature of the document and a description of the general subject matter as described in the document, or if no description appears, then sufficient other description to identify the document for a subpoena duces tecum, including the number of pages and attachments;

e. the specific privilege or objection that you contend applies to the document (e.g., attorney-client privilege).

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

1. Documents in your possession, if any, that would indicate that BLMIS engaged in legitimate trading for its Investment Advisory customers prior to 1992.

2. Documents in your possession, if any, that would indicate that BLMIS engaged in legitimate trading for its Proprietary Trading Business.
